

Through her Assumption into heaven Mary shares in the resurrection of her son

Write a question for the answer

Q1 _____

A1 Because Mary's body and soul were taken to heaven at her Assumption, Mary already shares in the fullness of the new life promised to people through the resurrection of her son, Jesus.

Q2 _____

A2 Mary shares in Jesus' resurrection through her Assumption and this makes it possible for us to share in it also. What happened to Jesus through his resurrection has also happened to Mary and will happen to us after our death.

Q3 _____

A3 The Church understands Mary's Assumption offers Christians hope tūmanako that they too will be raised body and soul to enter the glory of heaven.

Q4 _____

A4 The feast of the Assumption also celebrates the dignity of the body and soul of each person as gifts given by God to be respected not only during life but also after death.

Q5 _____

A5 Mary's Assumption gives people hope and faith to believe that heaven is their final goal where they will share in the fullness of God's tapu forever.

Name: _____ Date: _____

