

Dying Times - Rising Times

What to do

- Follow the arrow
- Record each letter below
- Read the message and talk about it with your family-whanau

Dear Family-Whanau,

In Religious Education we have been talking about the signs of the new life of Easter. Tonight, could we talk about the hard dying times in our lives and the happy rising times that have followed. Could we pray about these times in our family-whanau prayer tonight.

Thank you
